ASHA is the youngest among her 6 siblings. Her father worked as a police in Manipur, India. He met with a bike accident and since then could not regain his health. He died on 15th January, 2015. Her mother does not have proper job and income to support the family nor could she get provisions from her husband's pension as his service years did not reach the benefit. So, Asha needs help and support for her education. She is currently studying in Class VII.
